

Educate - Inspire - Transform

Mission Statement

Education is the shared responsibility of the student, home, school, and community to promote self-directed learners, collaborative workers, complex thinkers, and community contributors in an ever-changing society.

