

Mrs. Naugle's Newsletter

January 3-11

Math:

We are beginning Chapter 5 which involves place value of numbers to 1,000.

Writing:

This week we will focus on making resolutions and planning how we can achieve them. Next week, we are writing an information piece about polar bears.

Science:

Winter STEM Challenges

Reading:

During whole group reading, we will read Ready Freddy: Kindness Counts. It is a chapter book with an excellent message. We will work on specific comprehension strategies and critical thinking while we read.

Spelling: The test will be on Friday, 1/11/19
The focus is compound words.

cannot	baseball	myself	outside	into
pancake	playground	classroom	upon	inside
maybe	someone	sunshine	nothing

Challenge Words: nobody, everywhere

Cursive Handwriting:

The moment your kids have been waiting for! We will begin with the lower case letters that require the uphill stroke: l, h, k, t, i, u, e, j, p and f.

Report Cards for second quarter will be sent home on Wednesday, January 9th.

A HUGE THANK YOU to all of my parent volunteers!

We had THE BEST Christmas party!

Our Family reading Night has been rescheduled for Thursday, January 10th From 6-7:15. The theme is "Blankets and Books". Bring a blanket and a flashlight.

HAPPY NEW YEAR! Looking forward to an amazing second half of the year with your children!
