

Mrs. Naugle's Newsletter

November 5-9

Math:

We are doing a great job adding double digit numbers with and without regrouping.

Writing:

We will write about our Thanksgiving traditions and complete a keepsake book of personal gratitude.

Early Dismissal on Wednesday 11/7 for a School Improvement Meeting @ 11:20.

Reading:

We are continuing Unit 3: Community Life. Students will be learning the social studies concepts of natural resources, basic needs, goods and services, and the growth and changes of communities.

Theme Question: What makes a good community?

Focus Question: What does a community need to grow and thrive?

Genre: Fiction

Spelling: The test will be on Friday, 11/9

Spelling: The test will be on Friday, 11/9/18
The focus is base words with endings -s and -es.

hens	bikes	dresses	stamps	frogs
eggs	boxes	names	dishes	jets
ducks	wishes	bells	grapes

Challenge Words: stitches, fences

FAMILY READING NIGHT: Blankets and Books on Thursday November 15 from 6:00-7:15.

We are enrolled in the Six Flags Read to Succeed Six Hour Reading Club. It is being sent home today with information explaining this program.

The Veterans' Day Program will be this Friday, November 11, at 9:00 at our Elementary School. Book orders are due back on Thursday, November 8th. If you would like to order, please make your check out to Scholastic Books. Thank you!

Mrs. Naugle
North Mac Elementary
lnaugle@northmacschools.org

