PBIS Message of the Week: Respect. Always respect yourself and your classmates. Disrespect is a lack of self-esteem, courageous attitude, or values. Examples of disrespect include mocking, gossiping, lying, ignoring, interrupting, or unwanted physical contact. Always look to respect yourself, others and your community and remember to always treat others exactly the way you want to be treated.

Could the following students please come to the office after the pledge:

Happy Birthday to the following students: Joseph Davis. Please stop by the office sometime today for a treat.

Please join me for a moment of silence at the time (20). Thank you. Now please stand for the pledge (5). I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

Thank You and have a great day.
