News:

- The Key Club will be holding a blood drive on Wednesday, January 19th from 8:45 to 1:30. In order to donate you must be at least 16 years of age. Masks and appointments are required. If you would like a 16 year old parental consent form and to make an appointment to donate, please see Mrs. Kallenbach. You may not donate if you are in season for playing a sport. Also, there are new guidelines for becoming a gallon donor. You must enroll online. See Mrs. Kallenbach for more information.
- The High School National Honor Society is selling tickets for our annual Nelson's fundraiser. This drive thru event will be on Wednesday, February 2nd from 4:00-6:30 pm at North Mac High School. A ticket is $11.00.
- Senior athletes planning on continuing your athletic careers in college please let Mr. Raynor know once you've made a decision. We'll be setting up a signing day ceremony sometime in late February.
- Any sophomore or junior interested in attending CACC for next school year, needs to stop by Mrs. McQueen's office and get an application. The application is due back to her by January 31st.
- CACC will also be hosting an Open House for any interested sophomore and parents on January 27th from 5:00-7:00 pm.

Reminders:

- Drama club should check teams for the official rehearsal schedule. Email Ms. Kline with questions.
- Students, just a reminder, there are to be NO hats worn in the building. This includes stocking hats. Please remove hats once you come inside.
- Seniors-several new scholarships have been posted on Mrs. McQueen's school webpage. Please make sure you are checking it weekly for new ones. Most of the local ones will start to become available within the next few weeks.
